

Treasury Department

BUREAU OF THE MINT

Washington, D. C., February 10, 1886

President Cleveland yesterday appointed these gentlemen assay commissioners, to meet at the Philadelphia Mint on February 10: Senator Isham C. Harris, Representative James B. McCreary, Thomas K. Bruner, Salisbury, N. C.; Professor T. C. Chamberlin, Beloit, Wis.; Professor Charles F. Chandler, Columbia College, New York; Professor John A. Church, Prescott, Ariz.; Walter B. Devereaux, Aspen, Col.; H. L. Dodge, San Francisco; Professor Thomas M. Drown, Institute of Technology, Boston; Professor B. W. Frazier, Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa.; Dr. W. P. Lawler, Mint Bureau, Washington; Professor J. W. Mallet, University of Virginia, Charlottesville; Henry T. Martin, Albany, N. Y.; Professor Ira Remsen, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. The ex-officio members are: Hon. William Butler, Judge United States District Court, Philadelphia; Hon. H. W. Cannon, comptroller of currency; H. G. Torrey, assayer United States Assay Office, New York.

Sir:

The Assay Commission of 1886, to meet at the Mint at Philadelphia on the tenth instant, at ten o'clock A.M., will be composed of seventeen members — three ex-officio and fourteen designated by the President, as follows:

- ✓ The Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania,
- ✓ The Comptroller of the Currency,
- ✓ The Assayer of the United States Assay Office at New York;
- 441 ✓ Hon. Isham C. Harris, U. S. Senate;
- ✓ Hon. James B. McCreary, House of Representatives;
- ✓ Thomas K. Bruner, Salisbury, N. C.;
- ✓ Prof. T. C. Chamberlin, Beloit, Wisconsin;
- ✓ Prof. Charles F. Chandler, New York;

to Prof. John B. Church, Prescott, Arizona;
 to Walter B. Devereux, Aspen, Colorado;
 to H. L. Dodge, San Francisco;
 to Prof. Thomas M. Drown, Boston;
 to Prof. B. M. Frazier, Bethlehem, Penn.;
 to Dr. W. P. Lawver, Washington;
 to Prof. J. M. Mallet, Charlottesville, Virginia;
 to Henry P. Martin, Albany, New York;
 Prof. Ira Remsen, Baltimore.

Very respectfully,
 James H. Minhall
 Director of the Mint

Hon. Daniel A. Fox,
 Superintendent Mint,
 Philadelphia.

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
February [illegible]

Sir:

The Assay Commission of 1886, to meet at the Mint at Philadelphia on the tenth instant, at ten o'clock A.M., will be composed of seventeen members – three ex-officials and fourteen designated by the President, as follows:

The Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania,

The Comptroller of the Currency,

The Assayer of the United States Assay Office at New York;

h. Hon. Isham G. Harris,	U.S. Senate;
h. Hon. James B. McCreary,	House of Representatives,
h. Thomas K. Bruner,	Salisbury, N.C.,
h. Prof. T.C. Chamberlin,	Beloit, Wisconsin;
h. Prof. Charles F. Chandler,	New York;
h. Prof. John A. Church,	Prescott, Arizona;
h. Walter B. Devereux,	Aspen, Colorado;
h. H.L. Dodge,	San Francisco;
h. Prof. Thomas M. Drawn,	Boston;
h. B.N. Frazier,	Bethlehem, Penn.;
h. Dr. N.P. Lawver,	Washington,
h. Prof. J.N. Mallet,	Charlottesville, Virginia;
h. Henry T. Martin,	Albany, New York;
Prof. Ira Remsen,	Baltimore.

Very respectfully,
James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent Mint,
Philadelphia.

[Attached clipping:]

Assay Commissioners Appointed.

President Cleveland yesterday appointed these gentlemen assay commissioners, to meet at the Philadelphia Mint on February 10: Senator Isham C. Harris, Representative James B. McCreary, Thomas K. Bruner, Salisbury, N.C.; Professor T.C. Chamberlin, Beloit, Wis.; Professor Charles F. Chandler, Columbia College, New York; Professor John A. Church, Prescott, Ariz.; Walter B. Devereaux, Aspen, Col.; H.L. Dodge, San Francisco; Professor Thomas M. Drown, Institute of Technology, Boston; Professor B.W. Frazier, Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa.; Dr. W.P. Lawver, Mint Bureau, Washington; Professor J.W. Mallet, University of Virginia, Charlottesville; Henry T. Martin, Albany, N.Y.; Professor Ira Remsen, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. The ex-officio members are: Hon. William Butler, judge United States District Court, Philadelphia; Hon. H.W. Cannon, comptroller of currency; H.G. Torrey, assayer United States Assay Office, New York.